Dear Sir:

It has come to my attention that WHRC resigned from the Inter-Collegiate Broadcasting System several ~~ago~~ ^{months} ago because it could not keep up dues payments.

You will be interested to know that the Governing Council of IBS recently made a change in the dues rates. The new rates are $25.00 annually for full Member stations and $35.00 annually for Trial Status groups. We feel that the annual dues for full Members are low enough now to fall within the budget of all college stations.

In view of the reduced dues rate, and the increased prospects of obtaining advertising through IBS now that the System has contracted with a national advertising representative, I believe you will find it to the advantage of WHRC to seriously consider re-joining the Inter-collegiate Broadcasting System at this time. Our representative has already gotten sizeable contracts for IBS stations, and it is quite possible that you might get enough advertising revenue to cover the dues payments.

I am enclosing for your information and convenience a summary of IBS activities and an IBS Membership application.

Hoping to hear from you soon, I remain

Sincerely yours,

Richard E. Pittenger
